Our Correspondents.

Bessville.

Rev. Miller of Sedgewickville filled Rev. D. E. Barrett's appointment at the Ridge church Sunday.

Quite a number of our people attended the picnics at Glen Allen and Marquand the Fourth.

Pearl Cooper spent the Fourth visiting her father at this place.

George Moore and family spent July 4 visiting their daughter, Mrs. John Lee, who is sick.

Forrest Wheeler's uncle is visiting him.

Dines Bess killed two hawks this week, one of which measured 51 inches from tip to tip.

Arthur Green spent the Fourth visiting home folks.

Estella Green, who has been on the sick list, is reported improving.

There will be Children's Day exercises at the Ridge church the third Sunday.

County Sunday school convention will be held at Union church August 19 and 20.

Henry Sitzer's funeral sermon will be preached Sunday, July 26.

BESSVILLIAN.

Hahn.

Health is good.

Hay harvest is the present job. Corn plowing will soon be a thing of the past in this vicinity.

Crops do not look very promising in this locality at present.

Walter Key and Samuel Hilderbrand of Lutesville were in this neighborhood last Sunday.

P. W. Wilkinson is going to start his sawmill and run steady in a short time.

Hurrah for Mr. Taxpayer! I think he is right on the road question. If those fellows who spend a day and a half out of three leaning on their pick or shovel handles will put in this time at work it will help some. Let every man who goes out on the road work as though he was receiving 82 a day and we will have roads that we need not feel ashamed of.

We understand that there is to be a singing school organized here soon.

Some of our farmers contemplate going to the cotton country this fall. We want to see them back here in time to vote if they do go.

It seems as though Green Fuz has horned me off, so I guess I will throw up the sponge.

Trowel.

The glorious Fourth is over and the people seemed to have a good time. Some left with a frown and came back with a smile.

W. E. Gaines and George Fowler left here Tuesday for the northern part of Oklahoma. They expect to purchase a farm if pleased.

Albert Bess has sold his farm to James Griffey. Consideration, about $100.

Our Sunday school is doing nicely under the management of Mrs. Kern. Henry Cobb just keeps visiting Trowel. Maybe he will give our place a boost one of these days.

Married—July 1, James W. Null and Miss Madie Revelle. I wish them all happiness.

Married—July 3, Benton Delinger and Miss Josephine Clifton, both highly esteemed young people of this vicinity. Good luck to them.

Did you ever hear the beat of marriages, Mr. Editor? It has been too hot to do anything else—nearly 100 in the shade. Just turned to marrying, and we hope to have two more pulled off in a week. Yours for prosperity.

Leopold.

Health is very good and the weather is very hot.

Mrs. Henry Tenholder, Jr., and children and her sister, Miss Emma Nenninger, are here visiting their mother and other relatives.

Mrs. Lowery of St. Louis is here visiting her parents.

Prof. B. L. Hotze and wife, who have been visiting in St. Louis and Illinois several days, returned home Friday.

Several of our people celebrated the Fourth at Lutesville, Allenville and Advance. All report a good time.

Our baseball team played the Farmers' Union team last Sunday, winning the game by a score of 26 to 9. The feature of the game was the good pitching of Vandoren.

John Tenholder, one of our clever merchants, was in St. Louis last week purchasing some goods.

George E. Kinder, democratic candidate for constable of Lorraine township, was in our town one day last week.

James Manning of Fredericktown is here visiting his sister-in-law, Grandma Manning.

John Brands, who has been driving a milk wagon in St. Louis, is here visiting his parents.

Buchanan.

We are needing rain in this section. James Wolrdridge spent the Fourth visiting friends at Allenville.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson, a fine boy baby.

It seems that I have incurred the enmity of the Trowel correspondent to such an extent that he is anxious to know what Tsev spells. Just spell it vice versa, eh, Green Fuz.

Married—At the home of the bride's mother, Robert Bell and Miss Carrie Bostock. The writer wishes them a long and happy journey.

Several families of our vicinity spent the Fourth on Castor river near the McMinn ford. Dinner was served on the ground and Robert Malom performed a number of swimming stunts and acrobatic feats which were admired by everyone present.

The withdrawal of two of the aspirants for the democratic nomination for governor narrows the thing down some, in fact only two men are in the race now, Dave Ball and Wm. Cowherd.

On the Fourth of July, that day so far renowned in the annals of American history, we were called upon to commemorate the signing of the Declaration of Independence. One hundred and thirty-two years have elapsed since the issue of this remarkable document the authors of which have long since passed to the great beyond and live only in the hearts of their grateful countrymen. The results of their work, demonstrated by the course of time, has proved them worthier a greater reward than is in the power of man to bestow. Their names will stand at the head of the column of fame forever.

Latin.

No sickness to report.

Quite a number of our people attended the picnics at Lutesville, Allenville and Advance July 4.

We had a fine rain Friday night which was badly needed.

I am sorry to report the death of Jeff Spivy at his home in Whitewater. He had been ailing for quite a while, but had seemed somewhat improved in health and had recently paid a visit to his uncle, Henry Berry, near Lafin. On his return home he rapidly grew worse until death relieved him of his suffering Sunday, June 28, 1908. He leaves a wife and two small children, a father, mother, three brothers and two sisters to mourn his departure. He was about 26 years old. The remains were interred in the Whitewater cemetery June 29.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Yount July 2, a fine boy baby. Mother and babe are getting along nicely.

Married—Lee Simpson and Miss Ollie Call, Saturday, July 4, at the home of Rev. W. J. Poston, who performed the ceremony. The groom is the youngest son of Rev. Joseph Simpson and the bride is a daughter of George Call of near Huskey. May theirs be a life of continual sunshine.

Fred S. Clippard and wife visited at Jackson the Fourth.

The next Farmers' union meeting will be held at Hog creek schoolhouse. All those who attended the meeting near Patton seemed to enjoy it. Anderson Mitchell, who is president of our county union, was elected as delegate to attend the state union at Springfield this month. Brother Mitchell is the right man in the right place.

Now, brother farmers, don't some of you who have been standing back so long think it is about time to come in with us? It is simply a business proposition and is strictly non-partisan and educative. Join and help to push your own interests. If you think it will not do you any good you may be mistaken. Try it and see.

By the time this week's paper is in the hands of its readers W. J. Bryan, the greatest statesman and one of the best men to be found anywhere, will have been nominated by the democratic party for the highest office in the land—that of president of this United States. March 4, 1909, Mr. Bryan will begin his official duties.

Castor.

Health is reasonably good.

Farmers are busy laying by their corn and making hay.

We had a nice shower of rain recently. There was preaching at Kinder chapel Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shetley and two sons visited Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Haynes Sunday.

Apples and blackberries are on the program in the fruit business now.

Most of our people attended the picnics at Glen Allen and Marquand and report a good time.

Misses Nora and Maud Shetley, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Beal and Mmes. Catherine Haynes and Eliza Whitener visited the family of Henry Haynes Sunday.

Some of our farmers had a fishing bee Saturday. I don't think they overate themselves.

Miss Maud Ferguson, after several days' visit with her sister, Mrs. Robert Whitener, has returned to her home in Fredericktown.

Lutesville News.

George Reitzel of Huskey was in town Tuesday.

Dan McClain of Bessville was here last week.

Merchant Bill Myers of Castor was in town Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams of the Whitewater hotel spent the Fourth here.

Mrs. Sarah Crafton left Friday for a two weeks' visit with friends at Sikeston.

Joseph Arthur of Flat River visited his brother-in-law, John Phelps, last Sunday.

Mrs. Jesse B. Lutes went up to Glen Allen, Tuesday, for a few days' visit with friends.

Mrs. R. L. Yates and baby of Fredericktown are visiting her aunt, Mrs. M. Grindstaff, near Zalma.

Clifton Genter of Paducah, Ky., returned home Tuesday after spending a few days with friends in this city.

Oscar L. Phelps, after spending a few days with his parents in this city, returned to his work at Moberly Monday.

Rev. J. M. Welker will fill the appointment of the pastor, Rev. J. W. Hodges, at Glen Allen next Sunday.

James Teeters and family, who have been visiting relatives in the vicinity of Brownwood the last week, returned home Sunday.

James Abernathy, who has held the position of railroad agent at Mill Springs several months, came home Thursday for a short time.

Professor Jasper Francis has bought from Jesse B. Lutes the residence lately occupied by James Liles, who has taken the Allen place.

Mrs. Willie Henderson of Poplar Bluff came up on the Fourth and is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wilburn Eaker, and other relatives on Cane creek.

Letters from Boston intimate rather plainly that Miss Addie Clark and her nephew and niece, Earl and little Addie, would like to get back to "that dear old Lutesville" again.
